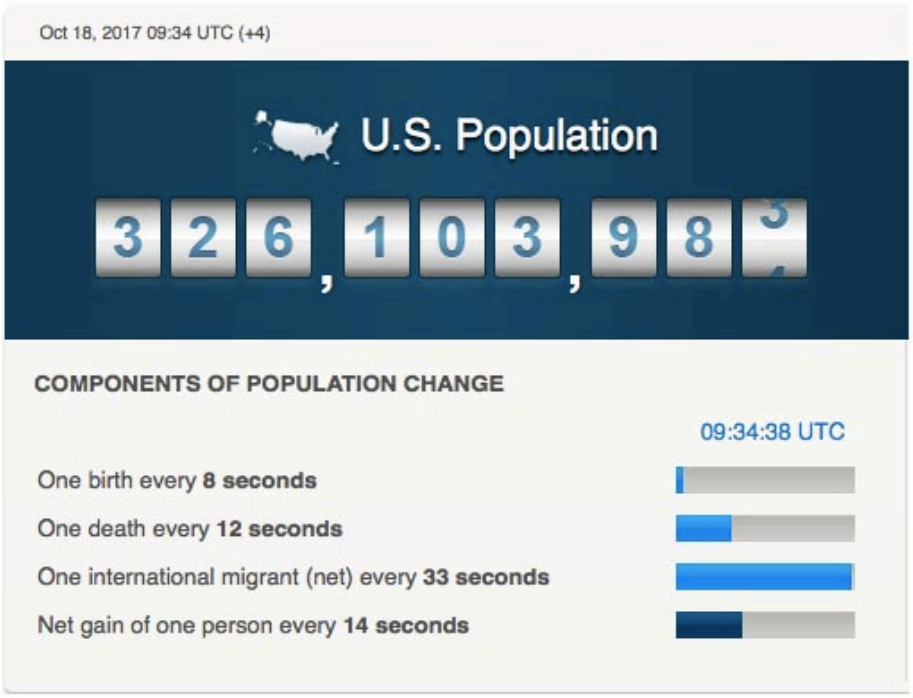
Population Clock



You can find a current calculation at: https://www.census.gov/popclock/

- How did they figure out the net gain calculation?

- Do you agree with the calculation? Why or why not?

- Do you think these will always be the rates of births, deaths and immigrants? If not, how might the rates change in the future and how might that affect the population clock?

Source: https://www.census.gov/popclock/