2. In question one you told me which online deal was best. Now convince me. Use tables, graphs or multiple other ways of knowing to convince me.

3. I came across another deal at the grocery store by my house. It turns out that when compared to the three deals I found online, the deal at my grocery store is not cheapest or the most expensive. What could the deal at my grocery store have been (give me a possible ounces or pounds of Sweet Hearts and a price)?
